

Tiny but tough

Every action I've taken or choice that I've made is to make you feel loved or to make sure you're safe, and as much as I can I have kept you from pain, in my eye line and arm's reach and out of harm's way,
and believe me, my darling,
if I have my say,
forever and always that's how you will stay.

But life can be hard,
and accept this I must,
and though I'm not sure how, somehow I must trust that you'll find your strength in the strength of my love and I'll find my strength in my Helper above, and I think this is probably harder for us,
'cause God made you tiny,
but God made you tough.
